PUBLIC WORKS.

A Card from Hon. James, A. Creigh-

In Friday morning's issue of the Her Omaha to work in a coal mine, went bathing ald there appeared an editorial in which under cover of discussing the paving question, Dr. Miller makes a mean, un manly and an entirely uncalled for per sonal attack upon me. He insinuate that I am in some way connected with material. Of course such a charge against a city officer if it emanated from a responsible source would call for imme diate and thorough investigation by the mayor and city council, and even as the case now stands, although the charge comes from a man notorious for hi venality, I trust that if any citizen of Omaha entertains any doubt of my official integrity he will come forward and demand of the proper authorities tha The plaintiff in the case of Harvey vs. they take cognizance of the charge and give the matter a searching and exwages, tried to gain his suit in the district haustive investigation.
